Where are you going, black-eyed girl?
Can you explain this tangled world?
I thought that freedom was a key
But here you know nothing's free

At night i dream of being young
Why didn't childhood keep me long
Why am i fighting for my voice
When i could sing when i want

Where are you going, black-eyed girl?
Where are you going, black-eyed girl?
Where are you going, black-eyed girl?
Is hatred winning?

She thinks i'm fucked up coz i think
I can do good things and still see
The vicious cycle dissolving me
And hatred continuing

Well you can't keep a good woman down
La-da-di-da-di-da-de-do
We gotta know who's keeping us down
Before we can rise, we can rise

Where are you going, black-eyed girl?
Where are you going, black-eyed girl?
Where are you going, black-eyed girl?
Is hatred winning?

The way i see the enemy is not my sexuality
Stop pointing your fat finger at me
Coz i will not be shut up, no i will not be shut up
No i will not be shut up

Where are you going, black-eyed girl?
Where are you going, black-eyed girl?
Where are you going, black-eyed girl?
Is hatred winning?
