You're not alone
I'm not alone
Maybe we're together
Said we'd stay together through any kind of weather

I've seen the rain comin' down and the snow fall on your eyes I've seen the sun pour in shapes through your window a thousand times

You see life in moments
I know I've got nowhere to hide
But I can see your face in mine and you'll be comin' back

For the first time it feels real since the day I saw you walk away From my head down to my shoulders
it feels numb

For the first time I can feel how it felt to watch you walk away
From the ground up to my shoulders
it feels numb

If I don't crucify myself somebody will (oooooh)
If I don't do this thing myself nobody will (oooooh)
How could you say that I don't wanna live--I wanna live (oooooh)
Time that you waste turns into memories

And they fade
Fade away

Now I'm alone
There's not a soul
No one to remind me
Tell me you will find me, put this all behind me

It's not a feeling I've known or one that I could find
If I could find you if only to tell you I'm losing my mind

You see life in moments
I know I could run out of time I can see your face in mine and it's beautiful

For the first time it feels real
Since the day I saw you walk away
From my head down to my shoulders
it feels numb

For the first time I can feel
how it felt to watch you walk away
from the ground up to my shoulders
it feels numb

If I don't crucify myself somebody will (oooooh)
If I don't do this thing myself nobody will (oooooh)
How could you say that I don't wanna live--I wanna live (oooooh)
The time that you waste turns into memories

And they fade
Fade away
