I have nothing to lose with the chances I'm about to take
I'd risk it all if it means I could spend more time with you
We have so many more memories to make
So come on girl what do we have to lose

Well let's take that ride you've been talking about The one we when we don't look back. Make only left turns

Well I'm down for anything at this moment
As long as the last turn leads me to your heart
Well I'm down for anything at this moment
lets make this moment lasts forever
I have nothing to lose... my emotions are worn on my sleeve
I'd risk it all if it means ill be with you
We have so many more romances to make
So come on girl I'm right here in front of you

Don't run away, don't let this fade

Crying at night is so overated
Staring at pictures has me sedated
I'm finally realizing that You might not be mine

Well dont string me along for this ride
My hopes are so high that i could just die
