Wait don't speak I know what you'll say
You have a way with words I know...
Don't worry yea I'm not hurt yet but I may be bruised on the outside, but I have a lot of fight left

Your words they contradict
All your lying actions
Girl don't you know what you are doing to me....

Yea all I ask is for you to compliment my love

Yea to feel the same
Yea all I ask if for you to compliment those actions
The ones that have showed me a way...
To your heart

Can you put this together?
My heart in puzzle pieces, trust me I've tried
I think we are missing some, Help me find them
