No, there's nothing more to do
I've got nothing left to say to you
Don't care for salty conditions
I'm over you

I can't explain it
I'm over due for a certain type of affair
Not gonna take it, this tea for two isn't something we need to share
I'm sorry baby,
It's just you drive me crazy

Oh please, stop messing up my day
Stop begging me to stay with you
Don't care much for inhibitions
I'm on the move

I can't explain it
I'm over due for a certain type of affair
Not gonna take it, this tea for two isn't something we need to share
I'm sorry baby, it's just you drive me crazy
I'm sorry baby, so sorry baby
