"3rd Command"

I'm getting closer to the meaning of life sick of these forces they're bittering my mind

you never kick back
you never realized
what's in my swollen eyes
you got the best of me, but yet now I'm shutting down stop denying that I'm wrong the days that I was strong are a complete blur to me now

landscapes surround me they flip up all these holes wasn't that my soul I've sold it for nothing
