So you say you gotta know why the world goes 'round
And you can't find the truth in the things you've found
And you're scared shit less 'cos evil abounds
Come join us

Well I heard you were looking for a place to fit in Full of adherent people with the same objective
A family to cling to and call brethren
Come join us

All we want to do is change your mind
All you need to do is close your eyes
Come join us
Come join us
Come join us

Don't you see the trouble that most people are in
And that they just want you for their own advantage
But I swear to you we're different from all of them
Come join us

I can tell you are lookin' for a way to live
Where truth is determined by consensus
Full of codified arbitrary directives
Come join us

All we want to have is your small mind
Turn it into one of our own kind

You can go through life adrift and alone
Desperate, desolate, on your own
But we're lookin' for a few more stalwart clones
Come join us
Come join us
Come join us

We've got spite and dedication as a vehement brew
The world hates us, well we hate them too
But you're exempted of course if you
Come join us

Independent, self-contented, revolutionary

Intellectual, brave, strong and scholarly
If you're not one of them, you're us already so
Come join us

Come join us
Come join us
Come join us
Come join us
