rescue me when I get too deep,
talk to me there's nothing to tell, Everyone, is a hypocrite,
look to me,
I'll save your soul
Now somebody out there must be reading my mail
Cuz' everybody knows
I'm a man with a mission,
coming to your town today,
I can damm you to fiery perdition, Cuz' I'm a man with a mission Follow me, when you give up,
Work for me, it'll serve you well

Everyone is a hypocrite, come to me,
I'll save your soul
Now somebody out there must be
tapping my phone,
Cuz everybody knows
I'm a man with a mission,
I'm gonna fly you away,
high above the noise and competition,
yeah I'm a man with a mission,
Passing through your town today I condemn you to fiery perdition,
yeah I'm a man with a mission
