Cut a rusty engine outta sawdust town
Better deal with the man who shook 'em all down
So put a little grease on my axle now, yeah

I been from Antioch to Alcatraz
I can roll you one from an empty bag
But let's take it easy to avoid any snags

Goodbye daughters of the revolution
Open your eyes and see your solution
Hallelujah, come join the jubilee

Let's keep on running through the gates of the city
To give up now would be such a pity
Don't you wanna see the ship go down with me?

Well, I'll come to you hungry, I'll come to you sore
I'll come 'round midnight to your back door
I'll drag my tail across your floor

Gonna run you ragged till you act your age
Gonna circle the wagons, gonna storm your stage
If we all plead guilty will the charges be the same?

Goodbye daughters of the revolution
Open your eyes and see your solution
Hallelujah, come join the jubilee

Keep on running through the gates of the city
To give up now would be such a pity
Don't you wanna see the ship go down with me?
Get down

I've been restless baby, I've been wild
Caught up in a fever dream
Well, come on and save me child

Goodbye daughters of the revolution
Open your eyes and see your solution
Hallelujah, come join the jubilee

Keep on running through the gates of the city

To give up now would be such a pity
Don't you wanna see the ship go down with me?
Alright

Said, don't you wanna see the ship go down with me?
Well, don't you wanna see the ship go down with me?
Do you? Do you?
Said, don't you wanna see the ship go down? Do you?
Said, don't you wanna see the ship go down?
