Lordy baby could you tell me what's wrong with me?
The way I feel nobody would believe
All the things that you do
You know they drive me out of my mind
And as mean as you are girl
You know you are my kind

The way you put on your clothes
The way you wiggle your toes
The way you scratch your nose
When you watch it grow

For the first time
I know you're mine
And if you want to know
I'll tell you so
What can I say?
I want you to stay
You're so heavy, you're so heavy

Goodness gracious

I said, "Lordy baby you do get under my skin, yeah
Who you kidding baby?
You know I'll do it again"
I said, "Lordy baby you left me black and blue
But that's okay because I know that you dig it too"

The way you say, "Hello"
When you dig a hole?
When you wear yellow?
When you play your cello?

For the first time
I know you're mine
And if you want to know
I'll tell you so
What can I say?
I want you to stay
You're so heavy, you're so heavy
What you do baby?

The way your story goes
The way you make me glow, I like that
When you let it snow
What I knows, I knows

For the first time
I know you're mine
And if you want to know
Well, I'll tell you so
'Cause what can I say?
I just want you to stay
You're so heavy, oh you're so heavy, yeah

Just knock me out
My, my, my, how do you do?
What you do to me every time?
About sixteen times, what now?
Ah
