Did it make you stop and think?
You're on the brink
Not to test you 'cause you
Don't know how far you go

Did you make a big mistake?
You curse your fate
And you wish, you could leave this life
For just one day

Welcome to the good times, honey
Did you bring your own parade?
And welcome to the big time, baby
Time for a serenade

Did you say you lost your pride?
You tried to hide
But you're not strong enough
To ever get away, woo

And it only goes to show
What we all know
That the tables will surely turn
For you one day, woo

So welcome to the good times, honey
Did you bring your own parade?
Welcome to the big time, baby
Time for a serenade

It should come as no surprise
Just realize that when it all comes down
Who is really on your side?
Tell me

So welcome to the good times, honey
Did you bring your own parade?
Welcome to the big time, baby
Time for a serenade
Oh baby
Look around, I see you here
Well, c'mon baby

Welcome home, baby
Woo
