Turn this key a little more now.
Unlock the doors that close this mind.
Float away upon these puddles (of rain).
Pray they wash away what you find.
Sitting here you ponder confusion.
Asking what is next to come of this.
Close your eyes and i will help you.
Together we'll find this place called home.

Chorus:

See what you do to (me).
Feel me deep inside of you.
Tasting you I feel the pleasure.
Of your legs wrapped around.

Close my eyes I'm leaving never.
This is where I wish to die

This room of white surrounds me.
Breathe my soul you now become me.
Close your eyes reach out you've found me.
Tears of love sorrow without me.
Candles burn and wave their shadows.
Upon this wall that bares your face.
I close my eyes and hope to find.
I hope to find this other place (room of white)

(chorus)
