Sometimes you really don't know what I mean
Sometimes you really don't know what I need

You walk around so cold and lonely
Layin' the bed, wondering what to do with time
You got no sense of fun until you know you've won
again
And yet you feel so much, so much inside

Yeah, you want to rip all the jewels off the idiots' backs
so badly
Screaming, give me what I've always missed, give me a good time
But if you look into your mirror you'll see that nobody,
no
Has ever ripped you off, it's all in your mind

Her beauty can only ever be skin deep
But if I'm honest that's all I ever really need So throw us some flowers and we'll give you songs and sunshine
And if you give me an hour, I'll show you how to feel, oh

Oh baby, I'm so lazy

It's all in my mind
It's all in my mind
So don't be unkind
So don't be unkind

It's all in my mind
It's all in my mind
It's all in my mind
It's all in my mind

Sometimes you really, really, really
Really, really don't know what I mean
Sometimes you really, really, really
Really, really don't know what I mean

I said I've got no sense of fun until I know I've won

again

And how do you think, yes, how do you think that feels?

Just give me an hour, I'll show you how you feel

How you feel

Ohh baby, I'm so lazy

Baby, ohh, so lazy

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

So don't be unkind

So don't be unkind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

So don't be unkind

So don't be unkind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

So don't be unkind

So don't be unkind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

So don't be unkind

So don't be unkind

So don't be unkind

So don't be unkind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

So don't be unkind

So don't be unkind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind

It's all in my mind
