I hear voices when no one's around
Silent voices that no one can see
I hear voices that don't make a sound
The distant calling that calls out to me

Feels so nice and hopeless when I'm rotting in your
arms
In my head
In my head
I want to be that bullet that goes ripping through your
skull
In my head
In my head

Sometimes fables(?)
Are different than mine
They always come over when no one's around
Strangers(?) dark
They crawl in my face and won't leave me alone

Feels so nice and hopeless when I'm burning through your skull
In my head
In my head
I want to be that bullet that goes ripping through your brain
In my head
In my head

I (?) light
I (?) side of my skull
When i(?) alone
Someone was laughing and pointing at me

Feels so nice and hopeless when I'm rotting in your
arms
In my head
In my head
I want to be that bullet that goes ripping through your
brain
In my head
In my head

(?) side of my head

The bullets are bright it's kept in the dark

(?) side of my head

(?) millions of (?) shot in the dark

Feels so nice and hopeless when I'm rotting in your
arms

In my head

In my head

I want to be that bullet that goes ripping through your
skull

In my head

I hear voices when no one's around

Silent voices that no one can see

I hear voices that don't make a sound

The distant calling that calls out to me

Feels so nice and hopeless when I'm rotting in your
arms

In my head

In my head

I want to be that bullet that goes ripping through your
skull

In my head

In my head

Sometimes(?)

They(?)

When(?)

(?) dark

(?) and won't leave me alone

Feels so nice and hopeless when I'm burning in your womb

In my head

In my head

I want to be that bullet that goes ripping through your
skull

In my head

In my head
