From the time I met you,
There's been one thing on my mind
That one day baby I'll just have to make you mine
Then everyday and in everyway I'll pay my daily dues
Of how I'd go about getting you to love me
Alright

Surrender
Yeah, surrender
Love sweet loving
Surrender
Oh surrender
Love sweet loving

I know it won't be easy baby, trying to get next to you You're fed up and defensive but one day I'll break through
I'm gonna launch a love attack and sweep you off your feet
So let us make a treaty baby, surrender your love to me
Come on now

Surrender yeah surrender
Love sweet loving
Surrender oh surrender
Love sweet loving

You think this is all a game but I've no time to play
If love is a battle, in the end I'll get my way
You better give an answer girl that's all I'm waiting for There'll be no time to change your mind once I've declared my war

Surrender yeah surrender
Love sweet loving
Surrender oh surrender
Love sweet loving
