The night the day laughing and crying
no Edge, no Time
Just a mask's parade floating on the waves, on and on in the Court of the wind

I can see the world tonight from this tower of eternity, And my heart bleeds at seeing war and death in our winds, Sometimes I pray to be in a new life of mystery Why man, don't you want to see another day?
No freedom to feel,
Violence fills the soul of humanity,
Leave me alone with my tears.

I dream to fly on a rainbow faraway with no swords in my hand, the mind ever clashes with the wall of reality, my sad throne in lands of sin,
Lost in evil fires,
Shadows of bad desires,
I can't see another way

Chorus
No, nowhere to run, Over the sun
only the dreams remain with me.

Hear me jester, play my song just for today
I haven't much time to live,
Let my crown fall in the fate of insanity,
Lord of the dark take me away.

Chorus
