No woman is going to change my mind, you see
And everytime they try, I fail and go home with them
Beautiful girls, on the streets and the corners
All to be bought, but hell, I don't wanna

I'm gonna kick you
I'm gonna kick you
I'm gonna kick you
Out the door

No woman is going to change my mind, you see
They go home alone, or have a long walk with me
When we wake up the next morning, the day after I'll have to pay you, but I forgot to remember you

I'm gonna kick you
I'm gonna kick you
I'm gonna kick you
Out the door

No woman is going to change my mind, you see
No matter what or how nice her eyes will be
Not caring who, or that she's a girl with class
The door is open, now to kick you out

I'm gonna kick you
I'm gonna kick you
I'm gonna kick you
Out the door
Out the door
