I have never been that way
The shape I'm in was turning grey
But I was proud to fool me
The truth is hiding in my lies
The sparks I lit and sacrificed
Are gone and keep their secret
So if you want to know me
I change my name
But it's just the same
I'm like anyone
Falling on the run
So if it's far too late
To turn the twist of fate
To burn the cards I played
Faking just like anyone
It's all the same
Though the hunger still remains
I'm out here just like anyone
And anyone is me
The walls I crashed fell down on me
Still I feel I should believe
That it's alright with you
I see your face but I can't speak
Embrace your arm but I'm too weak
To hold you by my side ...
So if you want to know me
I change my name
But it's just the same
I'm like anyone
Falling on the run
So if it's far too late
To turn the twist of fate
To burn the cards I played
Faking just like anyone
It's all the same
Though the hunger still remains
I'm out here just like anyone
And anyone is me
So am I slowly but I never trained
Though I know that I'm too blame
It's just a matter stupid wise

In another rhyme that hurts
And now like anyone
So if it's far too late
To turn the twist of fate
To burn the cards I played
Faking just like anyone
Though the hunger still remains
Too late
To burn the cards I played
But the hunger still remains
I'm out here just like anyone
