"Eternal In Nothingness"

The trees are swinging with the wind
The meadow is dancing with the rain
The circles on the lake are enlarging
The river flowest in dark

The stars are pale, the moon is cold

Im hurtling in infinity to uncertainty Im the one swallowed by nothingness Im everlasting and eternal

This infuriating prostration never ends
My dark heart is filled with hatred

Hypocrite and fake words flow
Deceitful echoes are lost in the sky

Chaos is back,
My chaos is back again!
