The death that was created by the hands of humankind
I know most of the answers
While I cant give any meaning Im going astray a perishing world

I cannot wake up from my nightmares
Inside the meaningless abyss
While loosing my existence
Im hitting myself into the ground

Now Im one of them
The secret is once found out

In the place where darkness never ends Im despairingly
Struggling while my nightmares
Are making me loose my Existence trying to wake up
Despairingly my eyes
Are covered in red
Now Im taking pleasure
From your pain
When their souls
Are perishing in
My emptiness
In my nightmares
From they will Never wake up

Now Im one of them
The secret is once found out
