Intro...

I cant stop, i cant stop... thinking about you,

it felt good to hold you in my arms, to keep you safe and warm, and never let anything come between us it felt good,

to know i drove u crazy, but i let you go for all the wrong reasons, but i dont know why

why do i get nervous around you, i dont have a clue...

how am i supposed to carry on...
(how am i supposed to carry on),
without you

ooooooooo,

cant stop thinking about you baby,
no way my baby,
cause i left you crying,

ooooo oooo baby,
cant stop thinking about you baby, caus i left you crying

it so wrong,
to know you felt something for me, but i took advantage of the love that meant everything to you

its so wrong,
to know its where i belong, and to turn away what meant so much to me... caus i could deal with the truth

cause what i felt was all so real, yeh yeh yehhh

how am i supposed to carry on without you whoaaaa nothing

i wanna know why i cant stop thinking about you baby, thinking about you babe,

baby forgive me (oh sugar... oh baby) cant stop thinking about you, cant stop thinking about you cause i left you crying wish i could hold you,

wish i could come back,
and recapture the things that meant alot baby

and tell you everything would be alright

(alright alrightttt)

whoa whoa whoaaa

mmmmmm

ooooo no no no didnt mean to leave you crying the way i did wish i could love you baby i cant stop thinking about you baby

didnt mean to leave you cryin the way i did but i'm sorry baby i cant stop thinking about you
