

Black President "Suspect"

Look at Banksy, listen to Zinn
And smell the asphalt down Tiananmen
I got enough Loose Change to cap the tooth
On an (Insidious) Truth
Join the traitors for the greater common good
There's no treason if the reason's understood
Join the suspects
I'm a suspect
Now you're a suspect too
Instead of burning books let's light up the crooks
Who'd tell your mother not to look
At a truck tearing down the avenue
So they could sell her blood to you on the nightly news
Don't be gentle with the so-called gentlemen
In the foxhole of deceit we see an end
Join the suspects
I'm a suspect
Now you're a suspect too
... everywhere I look I see another goddamned suspect
