Let's try getting to the sky, hang on or you're going to die
Sour life can turn sweet, it's laying at your feet
Sweet child with an innocent smile watches closely all the while Don't be fooled when he cries, keep looking at the eyes

Good life is contradiction
Because of crucifixion
If you're ready and have the need
I will take your soul and plant my seed

You just gotta listen to the night at the ending of the day
You just gotta listen to the night as safety slips away
Moving out of sight are the things you need to see to feel
And as they slip away becoming so unreal, unreal

You just gotta listen to the night as you're going up the stairs
You just gotta listen to the night and don't forget to say your prayers
And as you lose control to the eyes in dark disguise
And icy fingers send electric lies, lies

We're disturbing the Priest
Won't you please come to our feast?
Do we mind disturbing the Priest
Not at all, not at all, not in the least
Aah, do we mind disturbing the Priest
Aah, not at all, not at all, not in the least

The force of the devil is the darkness the Priest has to face
The force of the night will destroy him but will not disgrace
To get into his mind and to his soul you gotta set alight
The flames of doubt so deep inside, inside

The devil and the Priest can't exist if one goes away It's just like the battle of the sun and the moon and night and day

The force of the devil, that's we're all told to fear Watch out for religion when he gets too near, too near

We're disturbing the Priest
Won't you please come to our feast?
Do we mind disturbing the priest
Not at all, not at all, not in the least

Good life is contradiction
Because of crucifixion
If you're ready and have the need
I'll take your soul and plant my seed

Let's try getting to the sky, hang on or you're gonna die
Sour life can turn sweet, it's laying' at your feet
Sweet child with an innocent smile watches closely all the while
Hey, when he cries, keep lookin' at the eyes

Oh, oh disturbing the Priest
Oh disturbing the Priest, yea
