revolution in their minds the children start to march, against the world in which they have and all the hate thats in their hearts, tired of being pushed around and told just what to do, fight the world until theve won and love comes flowing through ,yeah children of tommorow live in the tears that fall today, will the sun rise up tommorow binging peace in any way must the world live in the shadow of atomic fear can they win the fight for peace or will they dissapear, so u children of the world listen to what i say, if u want a better place to live ,spread the word today show the world that love is still alive u must be brave or else u children of today will be children of the grave
