The way I feel is the way I am
I wished I'd walked before I started to run to you
Just to you
What kind of people do you think we are?
Another joker who's a rock 'n' roll star for you
Just for you

The fateful image of another man
The endless ocean of emotion I swam for you
Yeah for you
Your son Chip was layin' down on the floor
I wish the bullet entered my writing wall with you
Yeah with you

Are you metal? Are you man?
You've changed a lot since you began
Yeah began
Ladies digging gold from you
Will they still dig now you're through Yea you're through

You bought and sold me with your lying words
The voices in the dark that you never heard came through
Yeah, came through
Your fallen phallic got dismembered 'n god
A poisoned father with his poisonous his son that's you
Yeah that's you

I beg you please don't let it get any worse
The anger I once had has turned to a curse on you
Yeah curse you
All of the promises that never came true
You're gonna get what is coming to you that's due
Ah that's due

Are you Satan? Are you man?
You've changed a lot since it began
It began

Vultures sucking gold from you
Will they still suck now you're through?

(Cats... Rats...)

The search is on so you just better run
And find yourself another way
Rob the dead they don't feel a thing
Keep the living for another day

(Rats... Rat...)

You are nonentity, you have no destiny
You are a figment of a thing unknown
A mantle picture of a stolen soul
A fornication of your golden throne

A smiling face it means the world to me, yeah
So tired of sadness and of misery, yeah

My life it started some time ago
Where it will end I don't know
I thought I was so good
I thought I was far
I feel my world's been torn apart

But everything is gonna work out fine, yeah
If it don't I think I'll lose my mind, yeah

I know I know I know Yeah yeah I know
Listen to me while I sing this song
You might just think the words are wrong
Too many people advising me but they don't know what my eyes see

But everything is gonna work out fine, yeah
If it don't I feel I'll blow my mind, yeah
