Lord!
Hear Me!

This thought revolved around mine
Of wish and hope to be Free!
The walls of sacred trust
Cracked into thousand pieces!

(It lays down to the ground as puzzles need to be defined)

It lays down to ground
As
Puzzles and yet needs to be defined
It's so hard to stand still
To the truth
(Self) convictions

It's so hard
It's hard for me

It lays down to the Ground
As puzzles and yet needs to be defined
It's so hard to stand still
It's so
Hard to stand still

No matter how hard I try
It still stakes through this Heart
And left me whining
Without any chances to be (someone) I adore
