You might have gotten away this time
But you better brace yourselves because
I'LL BE BACK
Yeah i'm gonna do my time
Then come back to you all
I'm gonna kick the living hell out of all of you
Remember kids, live good lives now
'Cos in a couple of years
I'LL BE BACK
Yeah, ha ha ha back in town
Beating the crap out of all you little punks
Yeah, so you think you can sing, huh?
Well go on then! sing your heart out
Because you won't have one when I come back
In fact, you wont have anything
Yeah, you can run around, call the cops
Do what the fk it is you do
But keep this in mind, you are in for a shock 'cos
I'LL BE BACK MOTHERFERS
