

Blackfire "No Control"

Visit "No Control" on MotoLyrics.com

Living outloud, tearing my eyes out Burning memories, burning out Drink me away, into the next day Dilute yourself, it's all the same
This record skips, my heart trips Drink your conscience to feel your soul

No control, no control you drink your conscience, to fill your soul

Reflect the lie, change the light there are always two sides

Too many shadows, to many echoes
I can't control, feel my soul

No control, no control you drink your conscience, to fill
your soul

Who are we? who are we but dreams? chipping away, at this reality
Who are we? who are we but lies? unless we live our own lives

No control, no control you drink your conscience, to fill
your soul
