Throwing the beast into a plastic bizarre
You're shaking your hips and shine like a star
Walking on water is the state of the art
I'm tasting your lips, we're going to far

Rape me, taste me
Crawl on your knees
Save me from my heart

Resting the feeling, defeating the calm
We're tasting the fever and explode like a bomb
We stay into deep through the past and until the end
You crawl on your knees with my fist in your hand

Rape me, taste me
Crawl on your knees
Save me from my heart

Is it a shame, you and I?
Is it a shame, you and I?
