I'm over it
I hope to see you come
We fuse the lights
The dark will come undone

I've been soulblind
Don't make a fuss about the truth
I'm faking it
I've been soulblind
Don't refuse to get abused
I'll make it fit

I'm miles away
I'm running at such a speed
I feel I want some more
Much more than I will need

I've been soulblind
Don't make a fuss about the truth
I'm faking it
I've been soulblind
Don't refuse to get abused
I'll make it fit

Oh, will I get through?
I see my hands turn grey
Yeah, but I have to Clear my eyes and watch you fade...
