Live through an empty page of diaries and worthless days.

Cast your misery aside and abandon all the reasons why we ended up here, lying on the splattered nails. Lonely silence screams your name.

I wont resign myself to this fade i wont give up, hope incites my life with more pain, with more pain to endure.

Now our babbles seem absurd,
we must stop the fight.

Live through an empty page of diaries and worthless days.

Don't defend, dont defend our lie, dont defend our reasons why we'll talk the lies and sacrifice 'cuz I will to survive

we'll take us both away, all we know.

this moment makes us, this moment takes us home.

Lonely silence screams your name out from this place.

Cast your misery beside me, beside me don't give up.

Now I see your true intention to try to find the peaceful side of the world we left behind.

Don't defend, dont defend our lie, dont defend our reasons why we'll talk the lies and sacrifice 'cuz I will to survive

this moment makes us, this moment takes us home.

dont defend our lie, dont defend our lie, cast your misery beside me (dont defend our lie) cast your misery beside me (dont defend our lie)

Don't defend, dont defend our lie, dont defend our reasons why we'll talk the lies and sacrifice 'cuz I will to survive

we'll take us both away, all we know.

this moment makes us, this moment takes, this moment takes, this moment takes us home.

don't defend, don't defend our lie
