I see you in the crowd
A million people loud
You try to hide
But something make you call out
I gotcha falling hard
You make me drop my guard
We try to fight it
But something's written in the stars

I just can't shake this feeling
It's just like a bullet and its killing me
Two hearts that need some healing
You know what you do to me

Its time to surrender
Cause I can remember
A love that was strong enough
To not run away
Its time to surrender
I'm givin into ya
And you're giving into me
So give it away yeah

Everybody needs somebody
Reaching out, so take it from me
Everybody take this from me
Find the one surrender, give it away

Stuck in another life
I swear I've known you twice
If this is destiny
Time for us to roll the dice
Your heart was novacaine
Cut off to numb the pain
You took me in
And nothing's ever been the same

I just can't shake this feeling
It's just like a bullet and its killing me

Two hearts that need some healing
You know what you do to me

Its time to surrender
Cause I can remember
A love that was strong enough
To not run away
Its time to surrender
I'm givin into ya
And you're giving into me
So give it away yeah

Everybody needs somebody
Reaching out, so take it from me
Everybody take this from me

Over me
Something's coming over me
Theres no telling what we'll be
But something's coming over me

Over me
But something's coming over me

Its time to surrender
Cause I can remember
To not run away
Its time to surrender
I'm givin into ya

Everybody needs somebody
Reaching out, so take it from me
