This land that falls before me, will slowly burn away
Any now our country tells us, what were allowed to say
Break down whats put beside us, its all a fucking lie
They can not take what you want
They can not steal what you got

Its inside me
Bleed with fear you can not see
This blood has tainted me

Our garden poisoned by a god who claims its alright to kill
Don't take your life, you stupid fuck, in hell you burn lying still
Always war, always pain, always hate But never like this Always fears, always apprehension. But never like this

Its inside me
Bleed with fear you can not see
This blood has tainted me

We will only get smarter
Until our minds destroy us all
Any our weapons grow larger
This can become our downfall

Its inside me
Bleed with fear you can not see
This blood has tainted me

Will this be our final day
Where angles die and devils stay
Create, Subject, Decide, Infect..
