Here we are again but nowÂ...
There's nothing left to say
They've taken our breath now we're taking our place
We're making a mess without a trace
Expose the mask that's on your face tonight
The last of the lies
Stand up now don't you get it
Stand up now are you ready
When you feel When you feel
This is not enough
Stand up now don't you get it
Stand up now are you ready
This can't last forever
The sirens are set!
Here we go again but now
There's one thing left to say
Take control of our future
That's slipping away
We're making a mess without a trace
Expose the mask that's on our face tonight
One last time, One last time
What will it take to make you see
What will it take to make you see
What will it take to make you see
What will it take?

[CHORUS]

I'm saying
I'm saying
We're dragged along like puppets here
Run around in circles standing still
You want to escape
You want to change everything
Your taught to live for
And I want to escape
Want to change everything

[CHORUS]

Don't you want to escape
Risk everything you have
Everything, you're taught to live for
Don't you want to escape

Risk everything you have
Everything, Everthing
