"Revealed"

Visit "Revealed" on MotoLyrics.com

All my friends are revealed
As no one in the sun
And all light was concealed
Otherwise undone

All my hopes are laid bare
Like smoke dreams in a chair
All the plans for escape
All the faith

And all my time has run out
Just seconds in a jar
All the nights that I owned
In Saxony and Cuba

All my faith has been lost
Like people in a flood
All the flesh that I knew
All the blood

All my friends are revealed
As no one in the sun
And all light was concealed
Otherwise undone

[Can you ever forgive me and trust me?]
