I slept on your side today
And since then I haven't felt the same
Why am I blaming myself for what's happened to us?
I gave you everything
You took off with the best of me
Slowdown!
I can't believe this just happened again

I'm getting way too old
Here I am 23 still playing games
You'll see what happens when I fold
I've learned a thing or two
I'm done with chasing you

I'm through

Remember the parking lot that night in Virginia at our favorite spot?
You told me that you would never leave
And I believed you
What's wrong with me?

It's Saturday
I miss you
Where are you?
