Will I ever get to see you?
Will I ever get to have my way?
I'm stuck between a rock and a hard place
So I'm taking the high road
I'm calling all of my best friends

On nights like these
When I hate everything about you
They come to my rescue

I used to think that I could change you
But I was only changing myself
So I'm bringing a case of national
And sharing Jack with all my friends

Did you think that I would die of boredom without you?
Garrett's is where you'll find me all night
I'll raise a toast to you
Cause you're predictable
But I'm not miserable
I'm over you

I'm ok
