I've always been a nice guy
But now I'm out for blood
I've got a one track mind
I'm dangerous
I won't return your phone calls
And I won't hold your hand
If we can't get physical I'll have to pass

It's my turn
To be a lesson learned
It's time I used someone instead of me taking love seriously
It's all a game to me

I used to be a loner
Now I'm a slut
Making out at every party when I get drunk
Everybody needs affection
And for me that's where it ends
No relationship
No strings attached

I'll be your whore
I call cause I know you'll answer
I'll be your whore
Don't call unless you're coming over
