Looking in this world I see it
Looking in this world, do I see a man?
Looking in this world I feel it
Looking in this world I blast my mind today

A way to be far away
I blast my mind today
Blow the pieces to far away, yeah
I blast my mind today
A way to be far away
I blast my mind today
Blow the pieces to far away, far away, yeah

With my feet on the ground
I become a man
Feeling the roots
I become a plant
And thoughts become seeds
Spread all over the land
Simple things, giant wonders, emotions
I blast your mind today

A way to be far away
And blast your mind today
Blow the pieces to far away, yeah
I blast your mind today
A way to be far away
And blast your mind today

Blow the pieces to far away, far away, yeah

Break free from your own slavery
Break free from your own illusion
Break free from your own anxiety
Break free from your own desire
Break free from your own illusion
Break free from your own slavery
Break free from your own anxiety
Break free from your own desire
Break free from your own slavery
Break free from your own illusion
Break free from your own anxiety

Break free from your own desire

Looking in this world I found it
Looking in this world, I found a man
Looking in this world I found it
Looking in this world I blast my mind today

I scream at beauty to ease my pain
Come to me, I'm ready for your embrace (x4)
