As you went out tonight,
You seemed to be alright,
You're so mysterious,
your eyes so seriousâ€¦
You're walking on a better day.

You've never crossed the line,
Of our dimension of time,
You've tried to feel the truthâ€¦

With your old point of view,
I know it's hard for you,
I've tried to do it toâ€¦
You're walking on a better day.

You've never crossed the line,
Of our dimension of time,
You've tried to feel the truthâ€¦

With your old point of view,
I know it's hard for you,
I've tried to do it toâ€¦
You're walking on a better day.

And if I ever put myself on stage
I'll never see your love againâ€¦
Don't deny me now, don't deny me now, and don't deny my love for you
I'm waiting for one more signal

And if I ever freeze your chest with fear
I'll never touch your heart again,
You'll deny it now, you'll deny it now,
but I know it's true for shore,
I'm searching for someone to laugh with.
