(Rod Temperton)

Turnin' back the hands of time Holdin' on to misty memories Chasin' shadows thru the night Tryin' to find that happy ending Reaching out for another chance at heaven
We can still find the way if we try
Chorus
You gotta believe in the mystery How it used to be
We were more than lonely drifters in the dark Oh I can remember the sun inside
When love held us tight Can't you see I need that magic in my heart
Instead of it tearing apart Diamonds shining in the night Lyin' soft and warm together
Only images survive Can't this dream go on forever?
There is still time to lock away the sadness
Let the secrets of love start to smile
Chorus
It's only believin' the mystery Like it used to be Baby bring back all the passion to my life
Oh don't you remember all the tender days
All the love we made Can't we feel that warm sensation here tonight Lonely spirits seem to whisper in the wind
It's a silent song that's never meant to be Since the dawn of time the mystery never ends

We can find forever
If we let love rise again Won't you reach for another chance at heaven
We can still find the way if we try
Repeat Chorus
