At a little county drugstore, drinkin' soda pop
In walked a chick, she began to rock
She looked at me, my heart said wow!
Oh-oh honey, well it's happenin' now
Yeah-yeah, I fell in love

She looked at me and put my head in a spin
Right then and there I knew her love I'd win
I was watchin' her shake
When she said, come dance with me
A little like hound dog on a huntin' spree

Yeah-yeah, I fell in love

We were sittin' at the table
Boy, she sure looked cute
She rolled her eyes, she said count your loot
I told I had two dollars, two bits and change
She said, that's just enough for you to change my name
Yeah-yeah, I fell in love

You better know it, I fell in love
You better know it, I fell in love
You better know it, I fell in love
