He lives out there somewhere...Beyond the Land of the Lost...I hate me when I find...
That I laugh the most ~ With no cares out
In his chair...Just watching it all go by...
He dances on occasion...On the roadside ~
Why do people say...I think that he is strange
And crazy, maybe...Someone's gotta give...And Show him how to live today ~ I can be the
One. ~ Here she comes, she's another one...
With tangled hair, in need of love...She tries
To hide her face...From everyone in every Place ~ Why do people say...I think that she
Is strange and crazy, maybe...Someone's gotta
Give and show her how to live...Today ~ I can
Be the one...
