"Cannonball"

The world is drained, marked me like Cain
Entered the fane of worldly sane
I worshipped me, but now I'm free
My life's a gift from him, to him I'll lift
Chorus:
All love and joy and peace has broke through to me
I'll let his love break down these walls,
Like a cannonball
Now I can breathe, I feel so free
And I can see, He works even through me
His grace abounds when I fall down
My life's a gift from Him, to Him I'll lift
The world is drained, marked you like Cain
Entered the fane of worldly sane
You worshipped you, what will you do
Your life's a gift from him, to Him you better lift
