Ex... Ex-boyfriend...

Ex... Ex-girlfriend...

VER1:

You took my choice away,
I guess I wasn't meant to have one,
I had to play up to your play,
But I played off...

[Don't tell me you feel betrayed]

VER2:

It took a lot to soothe,
It looked neat, yet it never felt cool,
And there's no way for you to smooth
The naked truth
I played up to your show off for lack of proof

CHOR1:

No, I won't be your friend,
You will never get me back in your bed,
This is a real dead end,
Comprehend that I don't want a further pretend.

[You're not the only one] x3

VER3:

We never had a chance,
It was no kind of love at first glance...
I dragged my newborn sympathy
Through a fake romance...

[That killed our agonizing affinity]

VER4:

I never loved your face,
I never liked the way you fucked me.
You never tried to take my place,
We had poor sex,
Oh! I'm so happy you're just an ex!

CHOR2:

No, I won't be your friend,

You will never get me back in your bed,
This is a real dead end,
You must know that I don't want a further pretend.

CHOR3:

No, we just can't be friends,
I will never fuck with you on weekends,
This is a real dead end,
Face the fact I don't want a further pretend.

[You're not the only one] x3

MID:

I leave the past behind
For a better future,
Perhaps I look unkind,
No trace of me you'll find...
I leave the past behind
For a better future,
Without you... Without you!

CHOR4:

No, I won't be your friend,
You will never get me back in your bed,
This is a real dead end,
You must know that I don't want a further pretend.

CHOR5:

No, we just can't be friends,
I will never fuck with you on weekends,
This is a real dead end,
Face the fact I don't want a further pretend.

Ex... Ex-boyfriend...

Ex... Ex-girlfriend...

[I leave the past behind
For a better future,
Perhaps I look unkind,
No trace of me you'll find...
I leave the past behind
For a better future,
Without you... Without you!]
