It's time to make a sacrifice
I walk the earth with visions of the end
Of the end
Civilization grows out of hand
As these streets become crammed by day to day to day to day life

If you take the time to read between the lines
There's more to the story that meets the eye
The signs are all around you
You just have to open your fucking eyes

The end
Civilization grows out of hand
As streets become crammed by day to day to day to day life

If you take the time to read between the lines
There's more to the story that meets the eye
The signs are all around you
You just have to open your fucking eyes

Can you see right through me?
I feel like I am never there, like a fucking ghost
Do you feel betrayed?
Do you feel like a shadow in the bigger picture?
Do you feel betrayed?

We are overcrowded by our disgrace
Indignity, indignity indignity
Our fellow man will be the death of us
There isn't a light at the end of this tunnel
We have reached the end
We have reached the end of the road
An angels voice wont be there to save you
Wont be there to save you

Betrayal, betrayal
Betrayal will be your last words
Betrayal will be
Betrayal will be
Your last words
