Oh baby can't you see
I need you, come with me
Something is telling me that you be the way I do.
I want you close to me
My heart is telling me
I hate the fact that I love you - I feel blue.

Even though I'm not with you
I always think about you lately
I be going crazy cause I'm missing you.

Can't you see we were meant to be, baby
I want to be with you baby
Oh baby can't you see
I need you now.

Now that I think about it
The love and times we shared
How can I make it right
I just wanna go back again
There's something I can do
There's something I can say
Don't make you change your mind
Just let me know if I could stay.

Even though I'm not with you
I always think about you lately
I be going crazy cause I'm missing you.

Can't you see we were meant to be, baby
I want to be with you baby
Oh baby can't you see
I need you now.

Now when I'm reminiscing of all the things we used to do
I realize I still love you baby blue
And I'm waiting for you to come back
To put my life back on the track
The flashbacks of you and me together make me wanna spend my life with you forever and ever and none make you run from me
Baby I'm here for eternity.

Can't you see we were meant to be, baby

I want to be with you baby
Oh baby can't you see
I need you now.
