O vampire with eternal beauty come to me and drink my blood

Countess eager of beauty, be the mistress of my nights.

O my beautiful dark countess go out of your antiq coffin with the Mysterious flame of my wonderful power.

Now your soul will next feed on darkness.

Go out your black marbled tomb and drink on the antiq chalice of

The sky kingdom.

O sumptuous queen of whom the black and cold stare freezes the Blood of men.

Your sinister splendour reborn from the earth entrails.

At last your

Sobs are ending.

O dark mistress make us both be one.

O sumptuous Countesss, drink my blood, daughter of the night, be

By this blood the supreme synarchy of the universe.

Now you're riding the fatal serpent who will guide you out of the

Abyss; go infamous creature and bring the eternal bereavement on

Earth and feed with the blood of humans and taste again with me the Blasphemous barbarian pleasures and lusts o my dark countes
