she's a star and a saint, she's alone, she can't tell somehow she's so good and so bad, means a lot to you working hard for a dream and you know how to break her down know the name and the look, you know the face fake a smile, be a friend that is all that she has
somehow
and now I make you scream and shout her name

her life is a misery
she's all that you wanna be

let me drown again, fake your smile this is just what I wanna feel open up your eyes

she's a king for a day, she's a fool for a lifetime now she's gonna pay all her life, you let her drown she's the truth in the air, she's a light leading thru the dark

her life is a misery

open up your eyes
you opened up your eyes
