I tried indifference - but then I just fell was it incompetence - get along with that well everything I could do - just faded to nil I'm facing that stony cliff - gotta strengthen my will and there with my back against the wall I'm breaking my fall can you - see I belong to none hold back my fears I run are you hearing my point of view and all my resistance came - to nothing so I resolved all my hollow pain - in the blink of an eye I'm fighting with my senses, don't you know I'm tryin to sort it out just let me go

can you - see I belong to none
because you - know I belong to none you'll never hear I'm done don't tell me I feel

cause I'm getting what's real now you tried to make me see your light but your hair was sick and out of sight a strong impression from the stars you know

can you - see I belong to none
because you - know I belong to none
you'll never hear I'm done
don't tell me I feel
